Finding and Living Your Unique Life Purpose

Connecting to Your Destiny-Maker

Consider the following questions:

Do you think that connection to a Higher Power (God) is needed to find your destiny? Why or why not?

---

---

---

What plans and dreams do you currently have about your destiny (if any)?

---

---

---

How willing are you to move outside the box of your own expectations? How willing are you to go in a totally different direction?
